

Evidence and Human Rights in a Post Truth World

Image Credit: SITU, Brooklyn, NY

A Multidisciplinary Symposium

January 16-17, 2020 & February 21-22, 2020

The Kenneth Karmiole Lecture | Cultural Memory under Fire: Documenting the Destruction and Preservation of Archives and Libraries in the Wars of the former Yugoslavia in the 1990s

András Riedlmayer, Harvard University

Thursday, January 16, 5:30PM, Exploration Room, Luskin Conference Center. Reception to follow at 6:30PM.

Workshop | Cultural Destruction, Technology, and the Future of Human Rights Practice

Brad Samuels (SITU, New York), András Riedlmayer (Harvard University), Hariz Halilovich (RMIT University, Australia), & Robert Farley (UCLA)

Friday, January 17, 9AM-12PM, 111 GSE&IS Building (on Royce Drive, East of Young Research Library)

Public Lecture | Forensic Architecture: Socialising Evidence

Eyal Weizman, Forensic Architecture & Goldsmiths, University of London

Friday, February 21, 5PM-7PM, James Bridges Theater, Melnitz Hall (adjacent to Broad Art Hall & Parking lot 3)

Workshop | Evidence and Human Rights in a Post Truth World: Eyal Weizman and the Forensic Architecture Project

Eyal Weizman & Nathan Su, with Miwon Kwon, Dana Cuff, & Saree Makdisi (discussants)

Saturday, February 22, 10AM-12PM, DeCafe, Perloff Hall (365 Portola Plaza, North of Dickson Court)

More information available at: <https://ucla.in/2R06nnG>

Organizers (UCLA): Kamari Clarke (Anthropology), Anne Gilliland (Graduate School of Education & Information Studies/Archival Studies), Laurie Kain Hart (Anthropology/Global Studies), Saloni Mathur (Art History), Susan Slyomovics (Anthropology/Near Eastern Languages and Cultures)

Co-sponsored by:

